

Ordering AI-Anon/Alateen Conference Approved Literature Ebooks and Audiobooks

Improving ways for members to order AI-Anon/Alateen Conference Approved Literature (CAL) ebooks and audiobooks is important in the technological world we live in today. More members want to read CAL on their mobile phones, tablets, ereaders, and personal computers in addition to their print publications. Digital CAL also is a service to members who do not have CAL print publications.

The Policy Committee approved adding the names of ebook and audiobook vendors to the “Electronic Literature” section of the World Service Office’s (WSO’s) online store. A statement upholding AI-Anon’s Traditions followed the names of the electronic vendors for each digital CAL item:

“This announcement is informational only, and not an endorsement of any electronic media provider, reader, or other products sold by electronic media providers.”

However, this change still required WSO online store visitors to log off the WSO online store to order digital CAL from a vendor.

Subsequently, the Executive Committee authorized the addition of hyperlinks to our online store that will take you directly to our digital literature page on the respective vendors’ websites. An electronic version of The Forum is also available by those means. Two new icons now appear in the “Books” and “Electronic Literature” sections of the WSO’s online store to identify and redirect members to our CAL ebooks and audiobook pages offered by Amazon, Barnes and Noble, iTunes, Kobo, and Audible.com:

We have made every effort to uphold the spirit of AI-Anon’s Traditions and to adapt the WSO’s online store to today’s technological world. Announcements and articles about this addition will also be sent to trusted servants and the fellowship through AFG Connects communities, Group e-News, AFG Announcements, and The Forum.
